City of Boston Transfer & Renewal Hearing

RCN Open Video System (OVS)

3:00 – 4:30 p.m., Monday, May 24, 2010

O'Neil Hearing Room 801, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Plaza, Boston.

The Issuing Authority for cable franchises, Mayor Thomas M. Menino, seeks to obtain public comment on the Transfer of the Boston OVS License from RCN BecoCom, Inc., to Yankee Cable Acquisition, a subsidiary of ABRY Partners, LLC, Boston, Mass., in a hearing held at 3:00 p.m., May 24, 2010, in the Licensing Hearing Room 801, Boston City Hall.

RCN BecoCom, Inc., holds an Open Video System Certificate and Agreement to provide video programming in the City of Boston, entered into on September 30, 2002. The Agreement expires January 31, 2011. On March 24, 2010, Boston and other communities were noticed by FCC Form 394 that RCN-BecoCom, Inc., a subsidiary of RCN Corporation, sought to transfer ownership and control to ABRY Partners subsidiary Yankee Cable Acquisition.

This public hearing has been scheduled to provide an opportunity for public comments on the proposed transfer. Information regarding the OVS license transfer filing and the transfer process is available at the City Clerk's Office, Boston City Hall Room 601; the Boston Cable Office, 43 Hawkins Street; and, posted at: <http://www.cityofboston.gov/cable/>

Public testimony on cable television services is strongly encouraged.

Written comments can be addressed to Mike Lynch, Mayor's Cable Office, 43 Hawkins Street, Boston MA 02114 or, e-mailed to cable@cityofboston.gov For further inquiry or hearing information, please call the Mayor's Cable Office at (617) 635-3112.
